

WHITE CHARCOAL Evaluation – AP DRAWING

Name _____

Hour _____

SKILL	4	3	2	1	Student Assessment	Teacher Assessment
Drawing	Drawing shows excellent technical skill and detail. The direct observational technique was used to draw the contours in proportion to the sculpture	Drawing is somewhat detailed. Some use has been made of observational drawing to endure accuracy. Student has basic skills.	Drawing has few details. Drawing is primarily representational with very little use of or regard to observation.	The drawing lacks almost all detail. No regard has been given to observation.
Value	Value is done realistically to objects using white charcoal. Full range of value is achieved.	Value is applied someone accurately to the objects using white charcoal. Shows some use of value change.	Value is not applied realistically to the objects using white charcoal.	Value is completely inaccurate and has clearly been ignored.
Shading	Shading is applied to show realism the smooth surfaces of the origami paper.	Shading is applied somewhat accurately, but there are a few areas that need improvement to show realism in the smooth surfaces of the origami paper.	Shading is not applied accurately to show realism. There are areas where the student added or omitted shading accurately.	Shading is completely inaccurate and has clearly been ignored to show realism.
Craftsmanship	Still life was done to a high level of craftsmanship with clear evidence of hardwork and care.	Still life was done with a little more effort, the work could have been outstanding. A few areas where care is not entirely evident.	Still life was done with average craftsmanship; adequate, but not as good as if could have been, slightly careless.	Still life was done with below average craftsmanship, lack of care in finished work.
Effort/Attitude	Student used class time effectively.	Student worked most of the time in class.	The project was completed, but could have been much better if more time was spent during class.	Time was poorly managed. Little effort was made toward completion of the project during class.

Comments:

